Biblically Speaking About the Church: Its Name

by Chuck Northrop (edited)

The Name: the Church of Christ

A name is important—especially a name given by God. Within the pages of Holy Writ, God has given several designations or names to the church of the Bible. Each of these names speaks of the nature or character of the church. One such name is the church of Christ.

The name: the church of Christ indicates its nature in that the church belongs to Christ. The apostle Paul to the Christians in Rome wrote, "The churches of Christ salute you" (Romans 16:16). These were not just any churches or congregations. Paul was specific in that the congregations he was speaking of belonged to Christ. They were Christ's churches.

The name: the church of Christ indicates its nature in that the church was built by Christ. In Matthew 16:18 Jesus promised, "That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." The name "Peter" means a stone or a piece of rock such as a stone that can be thrown or easily moved. While the word "rock" is a ledge of rock or bedrock which cannot be moved. It is the kind of foundation Jesus tells us to build our spiritual houses upon (Luke 6:47-49). And it is a sure foundation. This foundation cannot be Peter for he often wavered and was often fickle and unstable. This sure foundation is the truth as expressed by Peter - "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matthew 16: 16). Upon that great magnificent majestic truth Jesus built His church - the church of Christ.

The name: the church of Christ indicates its nature in that the church was purchased by the blood of Christ. To the elders of the church in Ephesus, Paul exhorted them "to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood" (Acts 20:28). Notice the purchase price was divine blood and the purchase commodity was the church. Thus, the church was "bought with a price" (1 Corinthians 6:20). Since, the church was bought, it belongs to the one who purchased it - Christ.

The Name: the Body of Christ

The name: the body of Christ indicates the nature of the church in that there is only one body. Seven times in Scripture, Paul speaks of one body (Romans 12:4-5; 1 Corinthians 10:17; 12:12-13; 12:20; Ephesians 2:16; 4:4; Colossians 3:15). Though individual Christians are many, they are members of that one body. Some, however, would have us believe that there are many bodies. Each denomination being itself a body and collectively, they comprise the many bodies. But the Bible teaches that there is one and only one body and that body is the church (Ephesians 1:22-23; Colossians 1:18,24) of which we read about in the Bible.

The name: the body of Christ indicates the nature of the church in that there is

*Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD?
or who shall stand in his holy place?
He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart, who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.*

Psalm 24:3-4

only one head - Christ. Paul wrote that "Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body" (Ephesians 5:23). Thus, the headquarters of the church of the Bible is where its head is - heaven. There is no earthly headquarters for the body of Christ which is the church of Christ.

The name: the body of Christ indicates the nature of the church in that Christians are the only members of the one body. To the church at Corinth Paul wrote, "For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:12-13). Later in the same chapter Paul wrote that no schism is to exist in the one body (verse 25) for "every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation" (Matthew 12:25). Thus, denominationalism is opposed to the very concept of the one body of Christ Jesus.

The Name: the Kingdom of Christ

Some have said that the kingdom is yet in the future but the Bible clearly reveals otherwise. Paul wrote in Colossians 1:13 that the Father "hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son." Please note the past tense - "translated." Paul was writing to Christians living in the city of Colossae. When those people became Christians, they were translated into Christ's kingdom. Also notice 1 Thessalonians 2: 12. Again Paul wrote, "That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory." As before, Paul wrote in past tense indicating finished action. Since Christians in Colossae were translated (past tense) into the kingdom and Christians in Thessalonica were called (past tense) unto the kingdom, then the kingdom could not be in the future.

Further notice that John the baptizer, Jesus, and the twelve disciples came preaching "the kingdom is at hand" (Matthew 3:2; 4:17; 10:7). "At hand" means that it is near. Jesus said, "There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom" (Matthew 10:28). Either Jesus' prophecy is true or it is not true. If it is true, then this is another attestation of His divine nature. If it is false, then He must be a false teacher (Deuteronomy 18:22) "Let God be true, but every man a liar" (Romans 3:4).

Finally notice that at the institution of the Lord's supper, Jesus said, "I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come" (Luke 22:18). Since the early church partook of the Lord's supper (Acts 2:42; 20:7;

1 Corinthians 11:23-29), then it must be that the kingdom has come. Thus, the kingdom has been established as was prophesied.

With any kingdom, there must be a king. Thus, this characteristic of the church is seen. Daniel prophesied that "one like the Son of God" would come in "the Ancient of days" and "there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed" (Daniel 7:14). The fulfillment of this prophecy is seen in the fact that Jesus is called the "Lord of lords, and King of kings" (Revelation 17:14). And it is His kingdom that is called "the everlasting kingdom" (2 Peter 1: 11).

Second, a kingdom must have subjects or citizens. So, it is with the kingdom of Christ. The disciples of Christ or Christians are the subjects and citizens of the kingdom of Christ. Paul wrote in Ephesians 2:19, "Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God."

Third, a kingdom must have a law and in the kingdom of Christ that law is the New Testament. The New Testament is called "the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2), "the law of the Spirit of life" (Romans 8:2), and "the perfect law of liberty" (James 1:25). Citizens of Christ's kingdom abide by this law.

Finally, citizens of a kingdom should have privileges and blessings that come with citizenship. So, it is with the kingdom of Christ. Citizens of Christ's kingdom "receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting" (Luke 18:30). Such things as grace and mercy, joy and happiness, assurance and hope presently belongs to the faithful in Christ.

- b. Shows the importance of what we put into our hearts to keep them pure (Prov. 4:23; Phil. 4:8).

3. Resulting In Seeing God

- a. The pure in heart will see God more clearly in His work (Ps. 19:1; Rom. 1:20; James 1:17; 1 Pet. 5:7; Ps. 139).
- b. He will see Him by faith (Heb. 11:27; 3 John 11).
